

Word formation.

Put each word in brackets into a suitable form.

1. You mustn't go out without my (approve).
2. There was so much noise in the room that Mark's speech was totally (comprehend).
3. The first (settle) of Polish people is now a museum.
4. Paul has so much work to do that he feels (whelm).
5. The concert was (hope). I wish I had stayed at home.
6. What is your (marry) status?
7. I think our soldiers should be (draw) from Iraq.
8. If you want to be a famous artist, you should be more (create).
9. What have you done?! Are you (mental) insane?
10. We're going to Athens for two weeks. It means we'll spend a (night) in Greece.
11. They went climbing (regard) the bad weather.
12. He got this job in spite of his (experienced).
13. Tom is said to have hired a (kill) to murder his wife.
14. I've always been alone so I'm used to (solitary).
15. Paul saved my life. He is very (courage).